

PIERRE MOTYL

SUMMARY

Senior program, projects and crisis manager, experienced in the private and public sectors; practice of Interim management assignments.

PROFILE

- Solid competence in Information technology and telecommunications, Insurance and banking sectors, industrial processes, program management.
- Effective team leader, used to train, motivate and coach his co-workers.
- Good at defining goals and adequate action plans in complex situations.
- Good at identifying creative or novel ways to put these plans into practice on the basis of exhaustive and realistic analyses, while factoring-in risks and uncertainties.
- Experienced negotiator in technical and contractual matters.

TRAINING AND LANGUAGES

- Ingénieur Civil Physicien, Brussels University, 1969 (equivalent to MA in Applied Physics);
- Additional trainings in Communication, business administration, Systems analysis, Alternative Disputes Resolution, Coaching, etc.
- French (mother tongue); fluent English; Dutch, Polish and Hebrew spoken fluently.

PERSONAL

Born 1947, two children (b.1984 and 1993)

'Juge consulaire' (Magistrate) in Brussels commercial court (since 1996)

Lecturer on project management, business systems and IT strategy (ULB Solvay Business School programmes)

PROFESSIONAL TRACK

MARCH 2010 – CURRENT

BRUSSELS

- Various assignments: IT systems renewal study for OSSOM (part of Belgian Social Security), IT Investments review for a large institution in the public health sector, management team mentoring and coaching for a medium-size IT services provider, Web communication strategy review for the French Parliament, Communication Plan for the ISA programme of EC –DIGIT.

JAN 2007 – MARCH 2010

ANTWERP & BRUSSELS

- AXA Bank BE: Program Manager for the Outsourcing of an Operational Department
- AXA Belgium Insurance: Program Management Officer for the IT integration of Winterthur portfolios: coordination of a dozen projects, interface with business managers, infrastructure division, offshore providers for development testing, etc. The integration is considered as a reference ‘success story’.
- Idem: Confidential feasibility study and business case assessment for an outsourcing project.

MID 2003 – AUG 2006

BRUSSELS, ZENITEL SA

- Contract Manager (Interim Mgmt.) for the Design & Installation of the In-door part of the ASTRID telecommunication Network for the Police and other security services

2000 – MID 2003

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (BELGIAN PARLIAMENT),

BRUSSELS.

- Interim management. assignment to pull the IT directorate out of a totally confused and stalled condition

MAY - JUNE 2002: ‘COPERNIC’ PROGRAMME OF THE BELGIAN FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

- Highest mark in the selection process for the ‘top manager’ job of the new FEDICT ministry, best candidate on the French-speaking list.

NOVEMBER 2001 – JUNE 2003: SABENA SA BANKRUPTCY,

BRUSSELS.

- As ‘Juge commissaire’, supervision of the trustees and participation in the solution of critical issues e.g. the launching of SN Brussels Airlines, restructuring of the financial coordination centre and of the business units, negotiations for sale of subsidiaries.

1988 – 1999 SEMA GROUP BELGIUM

BRUSSELS & MISC. LOCATIONS

Deputy director with various responsibilities during these years:

- IT Master planning projects in the financial and public sectors
- Project Director for a full ERP implementation in Techspace Aero (Aeronautical industry).
- Organisation of international consultancy consortiums assembled to answer various RFP’s of the European Commission
- Leadership of large foreign projects with EU and World Bank funding: reorganisation of the Greek social security, introduction of VAT in Russia, urban transport master plan for the city of Lima, economic development of the Kuzbass region (Siberia), EU-SIMAP network for public procurements, etc.

1981 – 1988 DAIPN, KINSHASA,

FORMER REPUBLIC OF ZAIRE

- Deputy CEO of this large country-wide agro-business (4000 workers, ‘showcase’ enterprise), in charge of financial management, Human Resources, investment projects. Lead a complete restructuring and reorganisation in 1983 – 1984. Developed all IT management systems.

1977 – 1981 ACADEMIC AND JOURNALISTIC ACTIVITIES.

JERUSALEM, USA

- ‘Doctorand’ in communication research (Mass Media Sociology) in Jerusalem University, Research project on ‘Major media events’, with US universities (USC, UCLA, Stanford).
- Press and Radio correspondent (Le Quotidien de Paris, RFI, etc.)

1974 – 1977 MINISTRY OF DEFENCE,

TEL-AVIV

- Various R&D activities, Commissioned Officer in the Army (staff and field positions)

1970 – 1974 BEIT SHEMESH ENGINES LTD.

- Aeronautical industry: engineer in charge of the production planning and control.